Jazzing It Up

ORR's Award-Winning Bands

By Laura McLean

Jazz is the kind of music that goes where the musicians take it. Four bands in the Old Rochester Regional District have taken it a long way indeed.

Jazz bands at Mattapoisett's Old Hammondtown School (OHS), Marion's Sippican Elementary School and both the Old Rochester Regional Junior and Senior High School Jazz Bands received gold medals at the recent International Association of Jazz Educators (IAJE) Festival. The sweep has generated much excitement and pride in the area's music circles and instilled a feeling of optimism about the future of jazz.

"The region seems to be doing something in jazz," said Stan Ellis, band director for the ORR High School Jazz Band and Combo as well as OHS. "People are realizing that we have a great music program. It's alive."

This year marks the third consecutive year the high school band has taken the gold at IAJE. The 22-piece Big Band, copped a total of six gold medals at IAJE semi-finals and finals over the past three years. They've had the honor of performing — three years in a row — onstage at the Hatch Shell in Boston, home turf of the Boston Pops.

The OHS jazz band has long string of public performances over the years, having played at The Kennedy Center in Washington DC, at the Berklee College of Music in Boston, at Shenandoah University in Virginia, the State House, the VA Hospital, St. Lukes and the Museum of Science, in addition to competitions and conferences.

Increasingly, they are playing at local clubs and for local organizations, said Mr. Ellis. "I feel strongly about giving back to the community," he said. "I like to bring the big band for the seniors at Sippican (Healthcare Center) and the VFW. These people remember Glen Miller and the big bands of their days. The more they play the better off they are."

The emphasis on performance gets students used to the idea of strutting their stuff early on, mobilizing them to play whether for a hometown function, C-3 Television on Cape Cod or in the recording studio. The ORR Jazz Combo's newest CD recording Conflagration was released recently and is a collection of seven original songs written by Mr. Ellis and Trevor Kellum, an ORR junior who has been playing saxophone since fourth grade. The session is indicative of the commitment to excellence.

Mr. Kellum, whose playing has earned him numerous awards and highly sought-after summer studies at Berklee College of Music agreed. "It starts to be a standard that you keep up with," he said. "Both bands have a reputation to hold onto. You can't aim for anything less." Despite the pressure, Mr. Kellum finds jazz performance very satisfying. "It's inspiring and complicated music. It's a balance of thought and emotion, hard work and practice," he said.

One advantage the district has is the early introduction of jazz to budding musicians. Students in band have the option of learning jazz, along with concert music. Both Old Hammondtown and Sippican Schools have been turning out some fine players.

"Jazz is infectious," said Hannah Moore, who directs the band program at Sippican School in Marion. Winning a gold medal at their first IAJE competition came as a total surprise.

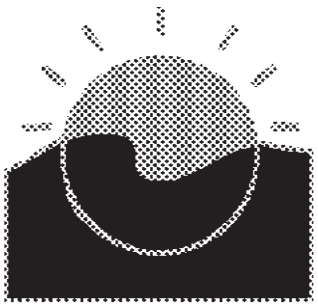

"It was my year to see how we liked it," said Ms. Moore. "With 170 kids in the band program here, I hadn't focused on the jazz program that much. I was a little tentative."

Since September 30 fifth and sixth graders who make up the jazz band have been busy learning a variety of tunes ranging from Blood Sweat and Tears' "Spinning Wheel" to their favorite "Hola Senor Loco," a busy upbeat Latin tune by Victor Lopez.

Their "full-sounding playing with nice balance between sections" impressed the judges, Ms. Moore said. "They were pleased that we were playing more challenging music, not just elementary stuff," she said. All in all they have about 10 songs under their belt. "We tend to play at a variety of events — we're the backup band for bingo night at Sippican (School) and at community party nights," she added.

Ms. Moore's philosophy is that competition is a limited part of the whole band experience. "It provides motivation, (but) it's only a piece of it. I don't think it should drive the bus," she said.

Back in her days as a student at Sippican, Ms. Moore studied flute, later switching to trombone at Old Rochester Junior High School. "You find the instrument that fits your temperament," she said. "Trombone is not the flash out front … it can be funny, pretty , brassy, mellow like a French horn … there are many flavors."

Wedged between the elementary and high school years, junior high is often the time when students venture off musically, experimenting with different sounds and styles. That flexing of musical muscle is something James Farmer embraces. The music director for ORR Junior High School, has incorporated flute — not a traditional jazz instrument — into his jazz band.

His band of 26 seventh and eighth graders just added another gold to their trophy case winning at the IAJE this spring at Stoughton High School. They also copped the top Outstanding Performance Award out of a field of 15 junior high bands from New England at the Clark Terry Jazz Competition at the University of New Hampshire. "This is the third time in four years they have received this honor," Mr. Farmer said.

"A number of my jazz students have past experience before seventh grade," he explained. "Many are in the concert band as well and still others play in bands outside school. Many play in their own funk and pop bands. Four of the students from Marion play in the Balcony Brass which plays in various churches throughout the area," Mr. Farmer noted, adding, "Despite their many levels of abilities and focuses, these kids have jelled very quickly."

If you're with members, you're as likely to hear Miles Davis and Duke Ellington among their favorite musical artists as you are Led Zeppelin, a seventies band that is enjoying a resurgence in popularity. "They bring their distinctive talents and interests to the jazz band, giving it more depth and personality, Mr. Farmer said.

The ORR Junior High Jazz Band has similarly seized the opportunity to play whenever possible, for the second year at a Jazz Music and Dinner sponsored by the Mattapoisett Masonic Lodge and with the high school jazz bands and chorus at a "Night of Jazz," an evening that has featured special guest artists playing to a packed

Interest Rate Update

It looks like we have hit the bottom with interest rates. The Federal Reserve is expected to raise interest rates twice this summer so I thought a quick general review on how that will affect different types of investments would be timely.

First, the types of investments that are directly affected are those that bear interest. Some examples include:

- Bonds of all types; treasuries, municipals, corporate (Saving bonds are the only bonds that are not affected)
- Preferred stock
- REIT's (Real Estate Investment Trusts)
- Utility Stocks

Some of these will be affected more than others by increasing interest rates but all will be affected.

These types of interest bearing investments have been the best place to be for the last 4 years but everything is about to change. The reason they have done so well is because interest rates have fallen. Now as interest rates rise, almost everything that has been given over the last four years could be taken away.

What can you do to protect yourself from losses?

A) Spend a great deal of your time going over the tax code, read all the financial books, magazines, newsletters and such to make sure you are taking advantage of all the tax saving strategies available to you, or

B) Spend one hour with me, because I spend my time doing the above.

You owe it to yourself to take advantage of the ONE HOUR, NO COST, NO OBLIGATION MEETING that we offer. Nothing will be sold and you will not be asked to purchase anything.

One of the guest performers — acclaimed jazz artist Jack Martin — stressed that the ability to focus attention on the music itself is key to the bands' success. Mr. Martin, who teaches privately and records at his Acushnet studio, explained: "When they don't have a marching band, more time is devoted to purely the musical end of it. Additionally, there are a great number of kids studying privately. The two things work together."

Music in any form requires diligence and work, Mr. Ellis agreed. "You have to get people to work hard and they don't always want that. It's best to get them enrolled young," he said.

Describing jazz as an "upbeat type of music closer to their rock and roll than they want to admit, " he added, "Once they're over the hump of practicing the first year, they like to perform. They get a chance to solo. There are restrictions, but enough freedom for them to say 'Hey, I've written a song here right off the top of my head.' Each has their individual style, their own voice."

The ORR Jazz Combo's CD, Conflagration, is now available to purchase through Mr. Ellis at 508-548-3271, with profits to benefit the band.

the Mattapoisett Fire Department. The Selectmen wished to welcome Mr. Vento back to the Fire Department after completion of his military service.

At 7:05 pm, the board met with Police Chief Mary Lyons and Rick Bettencourt of the Skateboard Park Committee to give an update on the official opening of the Mattapoisett Skateboard Park.

At this time, the park is almost complete and waiting for final commitment from the insurance company. The Selectmen had several questions about accounting from the Lanagan Corporation for their expenditures for the park. For example, the site preparation was estimated at a cost of $60,000 but actual cost was $88,000. Chief Lyons estimated that additional costs of $55,000 will be necessary to complete the project.

The board wanted to know if the remaining $12,000 of the original $100,000 commitment from the Lanagan Corporation would be part of that amount? These are concerns the board would like to see addressed before the Skateboard Park is signed off on and approved. Chairman Andrews would like to have a list of all the volunteers who have given so generously of their time and expertise to bring this project to fruition for the youth of Mattapoisett.

Donations are still very much welcomed to close the gap between available funds and the final cost. Anyone wishing to can drop their donation off at the Mattapoisett Police Station or mail it in. Mr. Bettencourt thanked the board for their ongoing support during the long process which is about to end. It is hoped that the Official Grand Opening for the Mattapoisett Skateboard Park will take place on Saturday, August 14.

Chairman Andrews announced there are two openings on the Mattapoisett Housing Partnership. Any interested residents should contact the Selectmen's Office c/o Town Hall.

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

July 20, 2004

By Kenneth J. Souza

A regular meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, July 20 at 7:00 pm by Chairman David Pierce. Also present were Selectman Andrew Jeffrey, Selectman Jonathan Henry, Town Administrator John F. Dolan Jr., and Secretary Helene Craver.

"Before we really start off, I want to say to my colleague, (Selectman Henry), that our prayers and thoughts have been with him for the past few weeks," Chairman Pierce said, referring to Mr. Henry's son who was recently involved in a serious motorcycle accident. Animal Advice

Jay Gould, DVM

My cat cries for food and then when I open a new can, she sniffs it and walks away. She drives me crazy. What can I do?

Cats that eat canned food develop finicky eating habits and produce much more tartar on their back teeth than cats that eat dry food alone. Make the dry food available and try phasing out the canned food over a few weeks.

I'm afraid that my male cat will develop a urinary obstruction if I feed him dry food. Are there any dry foods that are safe for male cats?

Generally speaking premium cat foods such as Iams and Science Diet are excellent dry cat food that are readily devoured by most cats. There are also a number of urinary formula cat food that are sold in grocery stores that may help prevent urinary obstructions.

Under correspondence, Chairman Pierce noted:

• Letter from the "Citizens for the Appropriate Placement of the Tank (APT)" applauding the Selectmen for the June 30 public information meeting concerning the siting of a new water tank, which has now been proposed for Benson Brook Road. "It seems clear that the Benson Brook Road site is the most appropriate location for a new water storage tank," the letter stated.

• Letter of appreciation from Mr. and Ms. James Stevens commending the Marion Harbormaster's department for responding so promptly to their distress call on July 3. "Being our first experience having to call for help, we are very impressed and thankful for (their) wonderful assistance," the couple wrote.

At 7:05 pm the board met with Civil Engineer Liz Beardsley, who is leaving her longtime position with the firm of Camp, Dresser and McKee (CMD), and will subsequently no longer be working with the Town of Marion. "Liz has decided to move on and I asked her to come here so we could say 'thank you' for your excellent years of service (to Marion)," Chairman Pierce said.

"I certainly want to thank the town for the opportunity to work with you over the years," Ms. Beardsley responded. "I've been impressed with all the time and effort put in by all the unpaid volunteers. I thank you for the opportunity."

Chairman Pierce next wanted to offer some comments on the town's recent July 4 fireworks display. In a written report to his fellow board members, Mr. Pierce noted that this year's display cost a total of about $34,000 and with the donations collected they had an estimated $4,500 shortfall — although more donations are expected.

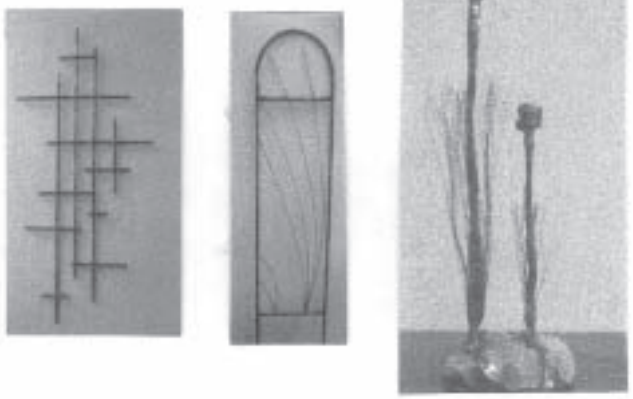

"Since I drafted the letter, some more funds have come in," Mr. Pierce said. "(That) brings us to about $3,800 toward the $5,000. So (we had) a bit of a loss, but not as severe as I thought."

Even though he deemed this year's event a success, Chairman Pierce said the board may want to consider if it is financially feasible to continue this tradition next year. "It seems to me that we need to think about other ways of proceeding," he said. "I have no intention of making a formal vote to disband the fireworks tonight ... but we should look at all the data."

Deborah Thompson, longtime Chairman of the Silvershell Beach Fireworks Committee, wished to address the two key concerns which residents raised this year regarding the annual event: safety and finances. As to the former, Ms. Thompson said the town has a "fine record of fireworks safety" and "there have been no serious injuries or crimes" during any fireworks display. She also noted that although the cost for the display has gone up every year, "each year the amount required from the private donations has been successfully raised."

To that end, Ms. Thompson suggested sending out a questionnaire to all Marion residents to gauge their interest in keeping this tradition alive. "Do Marion's elected officials really want us to go to some other town to celebrate Independence Day when we have such an ideal location for it at Silvershell Beach and when we have generous residents who are willing to foot the bill out of their own pockets to have it in Marion?" Ms. Thompson asked.

"We are not making any decisions tonight," Chairman Pierce reiterated. "We are taking the matter under advisement. I think in two weeks' time the plan is to revisit this (issue)."

Selectman Jeffrey asked that Mr. Dolan be given a copy of the proposed questionnaire to review before it is mailed out to residents. He also suggested that the Police Chief, Fire Chief and Harbormaster be present for the follow-up meeting to provide input on future fireworks displays.

"I don't think two weeks is an adequate amount of time to get a (decent response) on the survey," Selectman Henry added. "I think we need to spread this out ... maybe to 60 or 90 days."

As such, Selectman Jeffrey suggested they revisit this issue the first week of September.

"I've been organizing the fireworks for close to 10 years now," Ms. Thompson said. "If the survey goes out and the majority of people don't want the fireworks, I'm happy to live with that."

"I'm guessing about 50 percent of the people are in favor, and 50 percent against (fireworks)," Chairman Pierce said, basing his estimate on input from conversations with residents.

"I think we all know that this is a long-standing tradition in Marion," said Horace "Hod" Kenney. "I echo what (Selectman) Henry said. We shouldn't rush to make a decision — we need to get all the input we can. I honestly think the support (for the fireworks) is way over 50 percent ... but we'll find out."

At 7:40 pm the board met with members of the Sewer Expansion Committee, which made a recommendation to the board in their capacity as Water/Sewer Commissioners to allow "sewer service and associated facilities on private property (to) be installed by the town as part of the (new) sewer expansion project," according to committee member William St. Cyr.

These so-called "standard packages" on private property would include: installing a pumping unit; installing a low-pressure sewer pipe from pumping unit to the main line located within right-of-way; installing a control panel on exterior structure; installing an electrical connection between control panel and pumping unit (homeowner is responsible for electrical connection between circuit breaker panel and the control panel); intercepting the soil pipe prior to existing on-site disposal system and connect to pumping unit; abandoning existing on-site disposal system in-place; and restoring site to pre-construction condition.

The committee recommended these private property upgrades to be paid for by betterments assessed to homeowners. After the project goes out to bid, they estimated work would start in the spring of 2005 and all three areas would be completed by the end of 2005.

Selectman Henry questioned whether there would be a deadline for residents to tie into the sewer line and by whose authority they would obliged to do so.

"The Board of Health (BOH) has the authority to make (residents) tie in," said BOH Chairman Albin R.

With that, the board unanimously voted to proceed with the Sewer Committee's recommendation and have the project put out to bid. Selectman Jeffrey also requested an update from the committee on the project within 60 days.

In other matters, the board:

• Unanimously voted to draft a "non-binding letter of intent" on behalf of the Marion Board of Library Trustees expressing interest in the town applying for available planning and design grant monies for a potential library expansion project. "We must have the application in by the middle of October ... we would be notified in January if we would get the grant and then we would have until next July to figure out how to fund (the project)," said Trustee Nancy Braitmeyer.

• Voted to adopt a six-month moratorium on elderly housing applications at Little Neck Village as suggested by Mr. Dolan. "The reason is they want time to update their (housing) list ... they have a multi-year waiting list," Mr. Dolan said.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 8:23 pm.

Selectmen was called to order on Monday, July 19 at 7:00 pm by Chairman Gary Laboa. Also present were Selectman Richard Nunes, Selectman Bradford Morse, Town Administrator James Huntoon, and Administrative Assistant Veronica Lafreniere.

The board first unanimously voted to approve the minutes of the June 14 Executive Session, the June 21 and 28 Open Sessions, the June 28 Executive Session, and the July 12 Open and Executive Sessions.

Under the Town Administrator's report, Mr. Huntoon noted that Chairman Laboa would not be present for the August 9 and August 17 meetings, and the remaining board members would decide if pending matters on those weeks warranted a meeting or not.

Mr. Huntoon also received a letter from Finance Committee (FinCom) Chairman Michael Costa regarding a few pending issues including: the transfer of the Council on Aging (COA) van to animal control for their use; a new vehicle and equipment list for the new year; the octane rating of the gasoline which is purchased for the town; town policies as to clothing allowances and the personal use of town-owned vehicles; the status of the proposed Town Hall annex plans; management of proposed repairs and renovations to the Plumb Memorial Library and Town Hall.

On an unrelated matter, resident Georgia Chamberlain wished to express her disapproval over a financial report recently issued from Town Hall which was printed in a small, difficult-to-read typeface.

"This is a waste of taxpayers' money," Ms. Chamberlain said. "Who is responsible for this? Who's in charge?"

"I'm in charge," Mr. Huntoon said. "It won't happen again ... I can assure you."

Ms. Chamberlain told Mr. Huntoon he was "covering for someone" and that they should take responsibility for their own errors.

"That's my job," Mr. Huntoon replied.

"It was done improperly ... we know it was," Chairman Laboa agreed. "We've addressed it (and) it won't happen again."

At 7:05 pm the board met with owners and/or representatives from Adrian's Package Store (Brett Sherman), Plumb Corner Market (Steve Souza), Towne Pizza (Aristedes Papadakis), and the Rochester Golf Glub (Steve Tallman), along with Police Chief Paul Magee who recently staged a liquor license compliance sting at the five businesses in town which sell alcoholic beverages.

"(These) four establishments had violations of selling alcohol to ... an eighteen-year-old," Chairman

Laboa said. "We're going to talk to everybody and ... (allow) each establishment to make a short statement."

"The compliance checks were done on July 8 in the early evening hours," Chief Magee said. "The individual, with no identification, was able to purchase alcohol successfully ... at four out of five establishments in town. My biggest concern is I don't want to see this happen again. I was just looking to the board to address the issue to make sure it doesn't happen again."

Representatives from the sole establishment which refused to serve the underage customer, Lloyd's Market, were not present for the meeting but Chief Magee acknowledged he had sent them a congratulatory letter.

"I have two employees ... I've notified both of them," Mr. Sherman said. "Unfortunately, I was the one (on duty) that night. We were lax and we're going to do our best to comply."

"Clearly it's not our position to sell alcohol to minors," Mr. Souza agreed. "This can't happen again. I'm embarassed by it ... I've reviewed this with all (our) employees in detail. We should be doubling our efforts to make sure it doesn't happen again."

"There's no excuse for it, because I was there that night," Mr. Papadakis said. "I've let all my employees know ... (our) policy is 'no ID, no service.' I'm going to post signs (to that effect). I apologize to the board. I'm going to make every effort to make sure it doesn't happen again."

"I was extremely pleased with the attitude and cooperation from the owners ... they weren't at all defensive," Chief Magee said. "I would like to commend them for taking a positive spin on this and using it to correct (the) situation."

"We would encourage the chief to check again on a random basis to make sure that everybody is in compliance," Chairman Laboa said. "We can't afford to be lax with regard to liquor enforcement. It would be my suggestion that we place a letter of warning into the folders of each license holder, with the caveat that if they have another violation, we'll bring them back in for a hearing."

With that, the board unanimously voted to place warning letters along with a report from Police Chief Magee into each folder as suggested.

At 7:20 pm the board met with Gus Potter and Kelly Morgado of the Personnel Board seeking clarification of some personnel issues. Mr. Potter noted that the recent attempt to amend the town's Personnel By-Laws at the Annual Town Meeting may have created more confusion.

"This was an attempt to correct language in the Personnel By-Laws," Mr. Potter said. "Unfortunately, it was tabled at the Annual Town Meeting. It's come to our attention that the personal days have still been granted to employees, even though it's no longer (in the by-laws)."

"What was taken out was the whole center of the by-law," Mr. Huntoon said. "I'd be happy, with the permission of both boards, to refer (this) to Town Counsel."

Ms. Morgado said she interpreted the by-laws to mean personal days should not be granted. She also questioned the wording of the article on Town Meeting floor, which may have inadvertently deleted sections of the by-law.

Mr. Huntoon said this points up the need for a Personnel Administrator to deal with daily operations at Town Hall.

"I think there has to be a clear personnel representative in Town Hall on a day-to-day basis ... to take care (of these issues)," Chairman Laboa agreed.

"We also need to address the issue of the Town Accountant's hours which were voted at Town Meeting (but) we never reviewed," Mr. Potter said. "We never addressed the hours."

Both Mr. Potter and Ms. Morgado said the issue of increasing Town Accountant Claudette Coutu's hours to 40 per week was never presented to them prior to Town Meeting and they never had an opportunity to review the matter or provide their input.

In other matters, the board:

• Approved payment of an invoice from Town Counsels Perry, Hicks, Crotty and Deshaies, LLP, in the amount of $7,719.79 for legal services rendered.

• Discussed the status of the A.D. Makepeace property currently under a Chapter 61A restriction and whether the Rochester Land Trust has expressed interest in exercising its right of first refusal on the parcel. "As anyone approached the (Rochester) Land Trust about their intent (to purchase)?" asked Chairman Laboa. "I would like a note to go out to the chairman asking them what their intent is with regard to this property."

"This has been sitting here for three months," Selectman Morse said. "I think if we don't have a response by next Monday ... we should just sign it."

• Discussed the status of the health insurance co-payment for employees of Rochester Memorial School, which Mr. Huntoon said is now being reviewed by Town Counsel.

• Agreed to view a cranberry bog owned by Richard Reynolds off Braley Hill Road on Tuesday, August 3 at 6:30 pm to see what could be done to rectify a runoff problem at the site, which he alleges was caused by stormwater pipes installed by the town.

there and he mentioned something about possible salt from the road getting into one of the bogs. He doesn't want litigation ... he would like to see the town try and resolve it without litigation. I saw what he was pointing out. Maybe it would be better for the board (and Highway Surveyor) Jeff Eldridge to go view the property."

"They're trying to say (Mr. Eldridge) didn't fix it right ... he fixed it right, but it wasn't maintained properly," Mr. Huntoon said. "So now we're getting into this finger-pointing."

• Approved a request from Police Chief Paul Magee to grant a 10 percent salary adjustment to Police Officer Robert Small for having attained a Bachelor's degree as per the department's step incentives. "He has completed all the requirements for the degree, he just doesn't have the physical paper," Chief Magee said. "He's getting the degree on October 15."

• Revisited recent correspondence as to the ORR School District picking up transportation costs for students attending Bristol County Agricultural School. "When it was presented to me ... it felt like it was discriminatory," Selectman Morse said. "I only heard one side of it, but I would like to support our students (over there)."

There being no further matters to come before the board, they unanimously voted to adjourn for the evening at 8:13 pm.

The arena will be used for roller hockey, arena soccer, field hockey, basketball, tennis, and other events. The arena was already purchased from the Gallo Rink in Bourne and paid for by the Chuck Michaud Memorial Fund. They have about one-third of the money needed to surface and assemble the facility and after this fund-raiser they hope to have two-thirds of the money needed. The last fund-raising drive will focus on the arena board (there are 40 sections) sponsors and plaque sponsors.

To the Editor:

The Mattapoisett Scholarship and Education Committee wishes to announce its 2004 scholarship winners. Michael Lorenco will be attending Bentley College. Kelly Murray will be at Mount Holyoke College, and Kimberly Wall will be attending Northeastern.

In 2004 this committee also granted $2,000 to Old Hammondtown and Center Schools to help with the implementation of MCAS support classes. Donations may be made to this fund at any time and may be made in honor of or in memory of someone.

On behalf of past and future recipients, we thank you for your generous donations and ask for your continued support.

Oil Bill Awaits Fate

Senator Mark Montigny announced last week that the State Senate had passed the Buzzards Bay Oil Spill Bill and that it would now go to the Governor's desk. The Romney Administration has expressed concerns over the bill and it remains unclear if the Governor will use his veto powers.

"All of us who love this part of the world and were devastated by teh blatant ignorance of Bouchard and the instantaneous and permanent impact of (last year's) oil spill are extremely proud of this piece of legislation," Senator Montigny said. "This bill rewards those maritime transporters who want to join us in being responsible caretakers of the environment while throwing the book at those who play Russian roulette with what I think is the most beautiful coastline in the world."

The bill will be one of the most comprehensive marine environmental bills in the nation and will make great strides in preventing another oil spill similar to the April 2003 Bouchard Oil Spill in Buzzards Bay. Opponents to the bill include the American Waterways Operators Association who may be lobbying the Governor to veto the new regulations on their behalf. Lawyers for the AWOA testified at the legislative hearing that the bill was unnecessary and that industry could regulate itself.

"I am asking (Governor) Mitt Romney to stand with the people of Massachusetts and not with companies like Bouchard — Governor, do not veto this bill," Senator Montigny said. "We are on the eve of a great victory and I hope the Governor will do the right thing."

The bill was the end result of the Buzzards Bay Oil Spill Commission efforts over the last year. The commission was created by the Legislature to investigate the oil spill and make recommendations for legislative improvements to prevent future oil spills. Residents who do not want Govenor Mitt Romney to veto this bill can call his State House office at 617-725-4000.

Mattapoisett Skate Park

The Mattapoisett Skate Park is still under construction and currently closed to skating. Although the ramps are in place, the concrete transitions have to be poured and set properly. They are relying on the generosity of a concrete company that has been donating the concrete to the project. They are also grateful for the time donated by Michael, Jodie and Garrett Bauer. The Bauer family has been spreading the concrete and designing the transitions. The pouring of the concrete is dependent upon good weather. Additionally, the safety fencing has to be installed, the signs need to be posted, and the insurance company needs to inspect the work and give their approval.

The project is short funds and the committee has reopened their fundraising efforts to pay for the cost of the ramps. Approximately $88,000 was spent to prepare the earth, drainage, pave, fence off the perimeter and landscape. Supporting documents have been submitted to the town by J.B. Lanagan, Inc.

Movie Review

Artificial Intelligence

By Rob Gonsalves
http://robsreviews.cjb.net

I, Robot*. Starring Will Smith and Bridget Moynihan. Directed by Alex Proyas. Running time: 114 minutes. MPAA rating: PG-13.

"Increasing computerization and robotization are going to decentralize the world. The fields will allow everybody to absorb and retain information, while passing on the three classifications of undesirable labor — the dull, the dirty, and the dangerous — to robots and computers. This will give us more time for more creative endeavors."

That was Isaac Asimov back in 1989, predicting how we'd be living in 1999. (It's almost touchingly naïve; who has more time for creative endeavors, or uses the time for that if they have it?) The late science-fiction godhead (and all-around scholar) Asimov had a definite robot fetish; he coined the word "robotics," and he produced a sizable chunk of fiction on the subject of artificial intelligence. Some of his robot stories were collected in the book I, Robot, and Harlan Ellison wrote a legendary (and unproduced) screenplay adaptation. With the release of the new movie calling itself I, Robot — decidedly not based on that screenplay — Ellison must be grinding his teeth and Asimov spinning his way to China through his grave.

Making a Will Smith action flick called I, Robot is a little like making a Bruce Willis vehicle in which he heroically saves a bunch of people during the Dresden bombing and calling it Slaughterhouse-Five. Smith is known as Del Spooner here, but he's essentially just this year's variation on himself: a cocky, tough, wisecracking cop (or agent or pilot) pitted against this summer's sci-fi menace. Which, in this case, is a robot that seems to have disregarded the Three Laws that all robots are programmed to follow. (The short version: Don't hurt humans, allow them to be hurt, disobey human orders, or allow yourself to be destroyed.) An elderly robotics guru (James Cromwell) ends up as lobby pizza — did he fall out his window, or was he pushed? And if he was pushed, who else was in the room with him? Nobody except a curiously emotional robot named Sonny (voice by Alan Tudyk).

It's apparent fairly early on that this I, Robot won't detain itself with questions about AI ethics or philosophy. It starts as a whodunit, with Spooner as the bitter cop with a murder theory, which no one believes because he has an Issue With Robots. We're meant to side with him, because the robots' defense team includes dry-ice programmer Bridget Moynihan and corporate honcho Bruce Greenwood, who I expected to be addressed by a concerned robot: "You are in serious danger of being typecast as a callous Stupid White Man. For the safety of your career, please proceed in a calm fashion to the nearest Atom Egoyan casting call."

The movie is at least a bit less annoying than director Alex Proyas' previous two genre attempts, The Crow and Dark City, both of which have won unaccountable cred in goth and techno-geek circles. Where is his much-vaunted poetic vision when he really needs it? Proyas keeps the action percolating, but really there's not much anyone can do with scenes involving throngs of coolly malevolent robots converging on a crowd of scrappy Chicagoans. I looked at the robots at each turn and could see only computer-generated images, not plausible constructions of metal and plastic occupying real space. Even Spooner, part metal himself, doesn't escape the impersonal march of the narrative. He goes through the usual paces — the Give Me Your Badge scene, the I Love My Grandma scene, and even, God help us, the I'm Rescuing a Cat scene.

I'm actually divided about the movie's use of the title I, Robot. It's going to irritate Asimov fans, but it might — just might — point younger readers towards the stories, and it's given Bantam an excuse to re-issue the book in an attractive new hardcover edition. I wish I were optimistic enough to believe in an Asimov resurgence, though — my feeling is that the target audience is busy with Harry Potter books and Spider-Man comics — and Asimov's own vision of 1999 haunts me after having seen this film. Yes, computers have made it easier to make movies like this, in which thousands of robots leap and twirl and fight. They sure haven't done much for creative endeavors, though — not on the evidence of this screenplay.

SALOME'S STARS

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Is someone at work resisting that Aries charm? Hard to believe. But seriously, Lamb, you might want to back up your ideas with some solid data, and then watch the yeas pile on.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your hard work could pay off in ways you didn't expect, but certainly deserve. Tend to that pesky health problem now so you'll be in top shape to tackle the new projects coming up.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Planning a family event can be stressful unless you make it clear from the start that you're in charge. You might accept suggestions, but it will be your decisions that count.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) You still have a way to go to bring that professional matter to a satisfactory conclusion. Meanwhile, an important personal situation could require more of your attention by week's end.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) There's something about you Fine Felines that makes people want to tell you secrets. But once again, be wary of who is doing the telling. You might not want to be that person's confidante.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Creating a fuss about a family matter might get everyone's attention. But it might be better to talk one-on-one with family members in order to spare a loved one unnecessary embarrassment.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) You're making progress on that career move, albeit not as quickly as you had hoped. But stay with it. Your personal life takes an unexpected (but very welcome) new turn.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) If you feel you've been unfairly treated in a workplace decision, correct the situation now while there's still time to do so. Arm yourself with facts, and go to it. Good luck.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Devising your own system of doing things might be the best way to handle an increasingly complex situation. But do it tactfully in order to avoid ruffling too many of your colleagues' feathers.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A family member's health problem might once again require you to shift some of your current priorities around. But this time, make certain other relatives will be there to help.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) Catching up on tasks you've left undone will take a while to accomplish. But the sooner you complete them, the sooner you'll be able to take on another time-sensitive project.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) You might feel swamped by all that you're expected to do. But take a moment to come up for air, then handle things one at a time, and you'll soon get through them all.

BORN THIS WEEK: Although you love being home with your family, you also enjoy traveling and making new friends.
